Save the Life of an Animal!

Support the new Knoxville-Knox County Animal Center by:

- Purchasing an engraved brick in the Walkway of Life
- Underwriting a room, kennel-run, or other area of the Center
- Making a direct donation to purchase equipment or conduct a public education program

For information about how you can make the difference in the lives of the animals in our community, contact Karen Lively at 215-6597 or klively@knoxpets.org. To order an engraved brick, please use the order form below or download a form from www.knoxpets.org.

HAVE A PUP. SAVE A PUP.

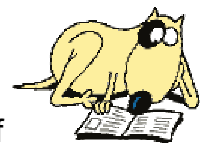

It's Pups time in Tennessee, and everyone should be sure to add an extra trip to Krystal for the occasion! Visit Krystal's Bearden restaurant next Friday, August 8, from 1pm-5pm for the Animal Center's pet adoption fair! Adoptable animals of all shapes and sizes will be present looking for the perfect forever home. The Animal Center was fortunate to receive a very generous donation from Krystal this year, and their generosity continues! If you make a monetary donation during the fair, you'll receive a free Krystal pup. Yum!

KKCAC TO PARTICIPATE IN FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL FESTIVAL

The Animal Center will celebrate the first day of the upcoming school year by having a booth with adoptable animals at the free First Day Festival 2003. Families, other local business and schools will join together to celebrate education at the First Day Festival 2003, presented by Comcast, from 1-5 p.m. on August 12, 2003 at the Knoxville Expo Center. FDF '03, supported by County Mayor Mike Ragsdale and Knox County Schools Superintendent Charles Lindsey, is presented by Comcast and sponsored by the Knoxville Expo Center, Proffitt's and Pilot Corporation. The new program is designed to get parents to take their children to school the first day and to enjoy a free festival on the first day of school. Their hope is that this will create additional excitement about the new year.

- The First Day Festival will provide age-appropriate activities including:
- entertainment from the Comcast networks Nickelodeon and Animal Planet
 - a back-to-school fashion show and skateboard demonstrations presented by Proffitt's
 - demonstrations and shows from local organizations and businesses
 - choral acts, dancers and other performers from various Knox County schools

JOIN THE PAC! (Pals of the Animal Center)

The next orientations for Animal Center volunteers (Pals of the Animal Center) will be Saturday, September 6 and Saturday, October 4, both from 10am to noon at the John Tarleton Home (just up the hill from the Animal Center). Orientation dates are posted on our website as soon as they are scheduled. We do require that volunteers be at least 18 to volunteer, however, 16 and 17 year olds may volunteer with a parent or guardian. Please see www.knoxpets.org for more details.
